A THRESHER REFRESHER!

Refresh yourself, your familiarity with the campus and your friendship with others at Alumni Weekend, again in early summer, this year Friday-Sunday, June 5-7. There will be opportunities to:

- stay in the newest residence hall
- socialize with President Perry White and Dalene White
- enjoy time in a casual classroom setting
- honor alumni award recipients
- specially recognize the “Golden Thresher” Class of 1965
- sing in an alumni choir
- dine with others in the classes of 1965, 1960, 1955 and Heritage Classes of 1950 and earlier
- acknowledge those who have supported Bethel College in a special way
Alumni Weekend officially starts with the ice cream social Friday evening, but you are welcome to come early to see the campus, visit the bookstore, munch at Mojo’s and/or go to Kauffman Museum.

FRIDAY, JUNE 5

7 a.m.-6:30 p.m.  Stop in at MOJO’S COFFEE BAR.
_Schultz Student Center_
Mojo’s Coffee Bar just celebrated its fifth anniversary. Mojo’s serves coffee, cold drinks, sandwiches and snacks. If planning to eat lunch or dinner at Mojo’s (open later than usual this Friday evening), please indicate your intent on the registration form.

8 a.m.-3 p.m.  Buy a souvenir at THRESHER BOOKSTORE.
_Schultz Student Center_
The Bethel bookstore sells memorabilia and clothing sporting the Bethel logo, CDs by BC musicians, books by professors and alumni, and other items. Take something home—for yourself or someone else!

9:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.  See what’s old and new at KAUFFMAN MUSEUM.
_27th and Main_
Kauffman Museum is filled with award-winning displays. Admission is free to Alumni Weekend registrants. Also open 1:30-4:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

2-4 p.m.  Let us know you’ve arrived at CHECK-IN.
_Lobby, Voth Hall_
Those staying on campus may pick up their name badges, room assignments, keys and any updated information, then settle in. Registration and payment in advance are required (see form). Others are welcome to check in now, too, or at the ice cream social later. Hosted by the Alumni Council.

6:30-8 p.m.  Check in (if not earlier) and enjoy the opening ICE CREAM SOCIAL.
_Lawn, Goerz House (lobby, Schultz Student Center, if rain)_
Pick up your name badge, then have ice cream with President Perry White and Dalene White, college friends and other alumni and guests. This official opening event of the weekend is free, hosted by and courtesy of the Alumni Council. For planning purposes, registration in advance is requested (see form).

8 p.m. +  Get a good night’s sleep on campus with an OVERNIGHT STAY.
_Voth Hall_
Those staying on campus settle in. Registration and payment in advance are required (see form). Transportation from Goerz House is provided, courtesy of the Alumni Council.

SATURDAY, JUNE 6

7-8 a.m.  Start your day with coffee from MOJO’S COFFEE BAR.
_Schultz Student Center_
Enjoy a cup of coffee or other beverage from Mojo’s. If you’re staying in the residence hall, to-go cups are available to take back with you.

8-11 a.m.  If you’re just arriving, start at CHECK-IN.
_Lobby, Schultz Student Center_
Check in for the day or the rest of the weekend, and receive a name badge and any updated information. Those planning to stay overnight may settle in at Voth Hall. Transportation from Schultz Student Center is provided. Registration and payment in advance are required (see form).
8-9 a.m.  Have a hearty Saturday BREAKFAST.
Cafeteria, Schultz Student Center
  Go through the breakfast line in Bethel’s beautiful cafeteria.
  Registration and payment in advance are required (see form).

9-10 a.m.  Head to your FIRST CLASS OF THE DAY.
Krehbiel Auditorium, Luyken Fine Arts Center
  What’s the best museum you’ve visited and why? How do these varied institutions serve the public while celebrating the past and the present?
  In an insightful presentation titled “Museums as Agents of Social Change,” Annette LeZotte (top right), director of Kauffman Museum since September 2014, will explore the changing role of museums in America. She will discuss how Kauffman Museum recently has engaged in exhibits and programming that address critical issues in contemporary society.
  For planning purposes, registration in advance is requested (see form). Transportation from Schultz Student Center is provided.

10-10:30 a.m.  Recharge and relax at COFFEE BREAK.
Lobby, Luyken Fine Arts Center
  Courtesy of the Alumni Association.

10:30-11:30 a.m.  Head to your LAST CLASS OF THE DAY.
Krehbiel Auditorium, Luyken Fine Arts Center
  Do the tunes “In the Mood” and “Moonlight Serenade” take you back to another time and place, perhaps your days at Bethel College?
  In an engaging oral and musical presentation titled “Glenn Miller and Me,” Bethel jazz instructor Joel Linscheid ’08 (center right)—who performed internationally with the World Famous Glenn Miller Orchestra from 2012-2013—will tell about his experience on the road, and discuss Miller’s music style and legacy.
  For planning purposes, registration in advance is requested (see form).

11:45 a.m.  Pose with 50th-anniversary friends for a “GOLDEN THRESHER” CLASS PHOTO.
Steps of the Administration Building
  Members of the Class of 1965 are invited to have their photo taken before proceeding as a group to the Alumni Banquet in Memorial Hall.

Noon-1:30 p.m.  Join alumni, friends and guests at the ALUMNI BANQUET.
Jolliffe Auditorium, Memorial Hall
  This year’s banquet includes special recognition of the “Golden Thresher” Class of 1965 and presentation of 2015 alumni awards to Delora ’63 and Jerry Decker, North Newton, Kansas, and Samir Khabbaz ’54, Richlandtown, Pennsylvania. This spring’s reunion classes will sit together. Open seating for others.
  Registration and payment in advance are required (see form). Those attending only the banquet may pick up their name badges (tickets) in the Memorial Hall lobby.

1:30-2:30 p.m.  Chat with the alumni award recipients at a DESSERT RECEPTION.
Cafeteria, Schultz Student Center
  Visit with this year’s honored guests and with retired faculty and staff. Courtesy of the Alumni Association.

1:30-3:30 p.m.  Visit the BOOKSTORE.
Schultz Student Center
  See listing at 1 p.m. Friday.

2:30-3:30 p.m.  See what’s new on a CAMPUS TOUR.
Meet in lobby, Schultz Student Center
  Take a brief walking tour with presidential spouse Dalene White, who will highlight recent projects. Transportation for up to seven people is provided.
3:30-5 p.m. Sing in an ALUMNI CHOIR.
Chapel, Administration Building
Whether you were in an established group or not, rehearse for Sunday’s service with conductor Rachel Voran Unruh ’12, who teaches orchestra at Haysville West Middle School in Wichita. This is simply a time for alumni and guests to enjoy singing together, then contribute to worship the next day.

For planning purposes, registration along with voice part is requested (see form).

6 p.m. Enjoy the evening at CLASS REUNION DINNERS.
Close the day over a meal with your classmates. Registration and payment in advance are required (see form). Photos will be taken (except Class of 1965, taken earlier).

HERITAGE CLASSES
Cafeteria, Schultz Student Center
Bethel staff members host alumni from the Class of 1950 (65th anniversary) and earlier years.

CLASS OF 1955 (60th anniversary)
Mabee Atrium, Will Academic Center

CLASS OF 1960 (55th anniversary)
Robert W. Regier Art Gallery, Luyken Fine Arts Center.

“GOLDEN THRESHER” CLASS OF 1965 (50th anniversary)
Lounge, Mantz Library

8:30-9:30 p.m. Take a look at the NIGHTTIME SKY.
Observatory, top floor of Krehbiel Science Center
Learn about the telescopes and other equipment in the college’s observatory and view celestial phenomena in the nighttime sky (weather permitting), hosted by Bethel staff member Roger Reimer ’78.

9 p.m. + Settle in on campus for your first or your last OVERNIGHT STAY.
Voth Hall
Those staying on campus settle in. Registration and payment in advance are required (see form).

SUNDAY, JUNE 7

8-9 a.m. Have a delicious Sunday BREAKFAST.
Cafeteria, Schultz Student Center
Registration and payment in advance are required (see form).

8:30-9:30 a.m. Warm up your vocal chords with the ALUMNI CHOIR.
Chapel, Administration Building
Those in the choir will warm up before worship.

10-11 a.m. Close the weekend at a WORSHIP SERVICE.
Chapel, Administration Building
Music by alumni choir; hymn singing; Heritage Roll of Honor memorial service. Hosted by President White, Dalene White and Advancement Office staff. Transportation from Fine Arts Center parking lot provided. For planning purposes, registration in advance is requested (see form).

11 a.m. SAFE TRAVELS!
Those who stayed on campus simply should leave their keys in their rooms. We thank everyone for coming!
